

Australian Book Review is one of Australia's leading cultural magazines, with a long history, a superb archive, ten new issues annually, and an unrivalled team of contributors.

We publish book and arts reviews, commentary, essays, interviews, and new creative writing. Through the Calibre Essay Prize and the ABR Fellowship program, we publish some of the finest long-form journalism in the country.

ABR enjoys close relations with the academy and is a partner of Monash University. Approximately half of our contributors are academics or graduate students. Major world university libraries look to ABR for quality journalism.

ABR would be a great addition to your library's digital resources collection. Why not trial the magazine now for your institution?
