

Books of the Year

Some of this year's most popular authors (L-R): Jaya Savige, Brenda Niall, Elizabeth Tan, Grace Karskens

Each year we invite senior critics and commentators to nominate their favourite Books of the Year. It is one of our best-read features of the year.

In our December issue we publish 33 sets of nominations.

Critics nominating their Books of the Year include:

Sarah Holland-Batt
Frank Bongiorno
Beejay Silcox
Judith Brett
Peter Rose

Declan Fry
Kerryn Goldsworthy
Tony Birch
James Ley
Yves Rees

Felicity Plunkett
Ali Alizadeth
Billy Griffiths
John Kinsella
Sarah Walker

Here are some of the popular books published in 2020:

Change Machine by Jaya Savige • Fathoms by Rebecca Giggs • The Labyrinth by Amanda Lohrey
• In the Dream House by Carmen Maria Machado • Blueberries by Ellena Savage • Smart Ovens for Lonely People by Elizabeth Tan • Throat by Ellen van Neerven • Stone Sky Gold Mountain by Mirandi Riwoe • Summer by Ali Smith • Imperial Mud by James Boyce • Friends and Rivals by Brenda Niall • People by the River by Grace Karskens • A Kinder Sea by Felicity Plunkett • Weather by Jenny Offill • Crisis of Conscience by Tom Mueller • The Living Sea of Waking Dreams by Richard Flanagan • Caste by Isabel Wilkerson • Piranesi by Susanna Clarke

Interviews: Peter Rose – Editor of ABR – is available for radio interviews in coming weeks.