Announcing the Australian Book Review Dahl Trust Fellowship

Today, Peter Rose, Editor of Australian Book Review, announced details of the Australian Book Review Dahl Trust Fellowship – a new association for the magazine. The Fellowship will form the cornerstone of ABR's first Environment issue, to be published in October 2014.

ABR seeks proposals for a cogent and engaging piece of journalism on any aspect of eucalypts. Any Australian writer with a publication record (books, creative writing, essays, or journalism) is eligible to apply. The Fellow's article will appear in the print magazine and ABR Online.

This Fellowship is generously supported by the Bjarne K. Dahl Trust. Peter Rose commented: 'ABR is grateful to the Trust for this far-sighted support for Australian writers. It represents an extension of our current partnerships and our editorial range, which is a great thing for the magazine.'

The ABR Writers' Fellowships are intended to reward outstanding Australian writers, to enhance ABR through the publication of major works of literary journalism, and to advance the magazine's commitment to critical debate.
